PRESENTS

PROFESSIONAL FORUM SERIES #3

ENGENDERING EQUALITY

The third instalment of our Professional Forum Series turns the spotlight on gender equality in the workplace. Is gender equality reality or a pipe dream? Have we gone overboard with PC language? How does being in the racial or sexual minority further shape the struggle of being a woman in a patriarchal landscape? How does the Singapore experience compare with the UK's? And what do the men think?

Join us for an interactive evening as we explore these questions and more with our panel of four female trailblazers, each with a different tale to tell.
