

SUKA Mandarin Programme 華新中文

HUA HSIA CHINESE SCHOOL
華夏中文

SUKA MANDARIN Programme – a joint initiative of Hua Hsia Chinese School and The Singapore UK Association (SUKA) with the aim of improving the mandarin skills of the children of all Singaporeans and Singapore Permanent Residents in the UK. The Programme follows the Singaporean method of teaching mandarin to school children. Other nationalities are welcome to join.

PROGRAMME FOR CHILDREN

In Holy Trinity CE Primary School
Trinity Walk, Hampstead, London, NW3 5SQ
Every Saturday 10:00 – 12:00

The programme fees is £ 250 per child per term.

中文

A subsidy in the form of a partial fee rebate is available to children of 'Singaporean members' of SUKA. Terms and Conditions apply. See www.suka.org for details.

SUKA is a Non-Profit Organisation based in London and staffed by volunteers. SUKA was founded in 1988 to promote social, cultural and business ties between Singapore and the UK.
