

The logo design is based on the idea of the ancient Chinese seal carving technique but with the injection contemporary elements to it. The whole logo is set within a square, the characters 'SUKA' are then re-position within this area to form a one-single continuous stroke of calligraphic icon.

The new inter-connected and 'all united' characters of the logo translates SUKA's fundamental aim of promoting social interaction, and to create communal relationship within the Singaporean community and to celebrate Singapore's utterly unique multi-cultural identity in the UK.

About Us

History

SUKA is a non-profitable and non-political organisation formed by a pioneer group of eight Singaporeans in 1988 with an initial of 60-70 members who had been living in UK for several years and were missing their beloved country of origin and the contact with fellow Singaporeans.

Since then, SUKA's membership rose rapidly in numbers throughout the years and now its membership has expanded to more than 300 in the past years. The majority of the members are still Singaporeans or past Singaporeans who continued to maintain interest in the Singaporean culture. Memberships are also extended to non-Singaporeans from the ASEAN and Europe region. All united in SUKA by their common interest in Singapore.

What We Do

SUKA is aimed primarily for overseas Singaporean families and friends to interact, develop friendship and to continue to support and celebrate Singapore's multicultural events. Therefore, the nature of SUKA activities has always been revolving around organising social events such as annual D&Ds, Summer Parties and cultural events like Vesak Day, Deepavali and Hari Raya to bring these Singaporeans together and to keep the culture of Singaporean lifestyle very much alive in UK.

Executive Committee

The SUKA Executive Committee are a board of members who are volunteers elected by the SUKA members at the annual SUKA AGM to run the organisation.
